LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, April 8. Effect of Senator Wilson's Speech.

The Virginia newspapers publish Senator Wilson's Petersburg speech with friendly comments. The Richmond Whig says: "Senator Wilson's speech at Petersburg is clear, manly, and to the point. Its premises, doctrines, and conclusions are undoubtedly antagonized by the whole tenor of the speech."

United States Marshal for Massachusetts. Prominent Bostonians have telegraphed here urging the confirmation of General Andrews as Marshal, and indications are that he will pass the Senatorial ordeal.

United States Senate—Extra Session. WASHINGTON, April 8. Mr. Williams (Oregon) offered a resolution that the President, at 10 o'clock on Wednesday, adjourn the present session of the Senate sine die.

Mr. Sumner (Mass.) objected to the present consideration of the resolution. The President of the Senate appointed Mr. Johnson (Md.) the Committee Printing, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Riddle.

Mr. Willey (W. Va.) offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the Secretary of War be requested to communicate to the Senate copies of all deeds, conveyances, and other instruments of title, by which the United States have claim to any land, tenements, and water privileges at or near Harper's Ferry, in West Virginia, which have been, or may be, transferred, and for what purpose, and whether there is any reason why any part of the lands and tenements and water privileges, unused and unoccupied, should not now be sold.

The New York Money Market. NEW YORK, April 8. The New York Post's financial article says the loan market is easy, but active, at 7 per cent. Commercial paper is slow at 7 1/2 for choice bills. Stocks are unsettled and Government securities are steady.

Clearings Before Alderman Britten. At the Central Station to-day, James Morgan was charged with swindling. He sold a piece of silk to G. Wagner, representing it to contain eighteen yards. On examining it, it was found to contain only fourteen yards. He was held in $800 bail for a further hearing. He is a "professional," and has only been released from prison since the 5th of March. He was captured last evening in a doorway, near Front and Almond streets, by watchman Davis. He was held in $2500 bail for a further hearing.
